Turin, March 3.

HIS Royal Highneſs the Duke of York is in perfect Health, and greatly ſatisfied with the Manner of his Reception here. His Royal Highneſs has employed his Time in viſiting ſome of the ſtrong Places in the Neighbourhood of Turin, and whatever elſe is worthy his Attention; and has been often at Court in his private Character, where he is conſtantly received by the whole Royal Family with every poſſible Mark of Eſteem and Regard. The Duke and Dutcheſs of Savoy's Indiſpoſitions have hitherto prevented his Royal Highneſs's Dining with his Sardinian Majeſty, and receiving a friendly Viſit from the Duke of Savoy, both which are intended to take Place before his Royal Highneſs's Departure, which is fixed for Wedneſday next.

The Duke of Modena, in his own Name as ſuch, and as Adminiſtrator of Auſtrian Lombardy, and alſo by the Order and on the Part of the Empreſs Queen, has ſent hither the Count Belgiojoſo, a Perſon of the firſt Diſtinction of that Country, to compliment his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, and to invite him to honour Milan with a Viſit; offering him an Apartment in the Ducal Palace; or, upon his Refuſal of That, a Hotel in the Town. His Royal Highneſs made a ſuitable Anſwer to theſe Civilities, and propoſes ſpending the three laſt Days of the Carnaval at that Place. The Duke of Parma has alſo followed this Example, and has ſent the Marquis Calcagnini to compliment his Royal Highneſs, and to invite him to his Capital; which Invitation it ſeems to be his Royal Highneſs's Intention to accept, upon his Return from Rome and Naples.

Ratisbon, March 4. The College of Princes, having received an Imperial Reſcript, brought hither by Prince John of Lichtenſtein, notifying to them the Reſolution taken the 20th paſt by the Electoral Ambaſſadors at Frankfort to proceed to the Election of a King of the Romans on the 3d Day of this Month, and having preſented this Evening the Concluſum, notifying their Aſſent thereto, by Count Sauran the Saltzbourg Miniſter, to the Prince of Tour and Taxis the Chief Imperial Commiſſary to the Diet, came immediately to an Agreement to ſeparate till the 1ſt of April.

The new Corps, called the Noble German Guards, arrived here To-day from Vienna. It is a very fine Body, in Number about Eighty; the Private Gentlemen being moſtly Reduced Subaltern Officers. They ſet out again To-morrow for Frankfort, where they are to do Duty at the Coronation of the King of the Romans.

Bruſſels, March 6. The Scarcity of Proviſions is ſo great in the Parts adjacent to Franckfort, and near all the great Rivers, occaſioned by the late vaſt Inundations, that a very large Quantity of Proviſions are diſpatched daily from hence for that City, where the Conſumption is immenſe, through the unuſual Concourſe of People, aſſembled there upon Account of the approaching Election and Coronation of a King of the Romans.

Admiralty Office, March 14.

PUrſuant to an Act of Parliament paſſed in the 26th Year of His late Majeſty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, That Information has been ſent to this Office, That the Schooner Sophia Abertina, whereof John Drayer of Stockholm was Owner, and Nils Nillſon Maſter, ſailed from Gottenburgh on the 26th of December laſt, laden with 3394 Bars of Iron, and Forty Dozen of Deals, conſigned to the Order of Robert, John, and Benjamin Halls, Merchants, at the Port of Liverpool; That on the 26th of the ſame Month, about Ten o'Clock at Night, being very thick with Snow, ſhe ſtruck upon a Sand called Burnham Flatts, and about Twelve the ſame Night the Crew were obliged to leave her and take to their Boat to ſave their Lives; That the next Day the ſaid Veſſel drove off the Sand where ſhe firſt ſtruck, and about Two o'Clock the ſame Afternoon, being filled with Water, ſhe ſunk within One Mile of Ferrier Buoy, a Place within the Limits of the Port of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk, in about Seven Fathom Water.

General Post-Office, February 7, 1764.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the Mail from York to Malton, was on Sunday Morning last the 5th instant, about One o'Clock, attacked and robbed upon Stockton Common, betwixt York and Malton, about half a Mile before he came to the Lobster House, by a single Highwayman on Horseback, who carried away the Horse on which the Post boy rode, together with the said Mail and all the Bags and Letters it contained, viz. The Bags and Letters sent from this Office on Thursday Night the 1st Instant for the Towns of Malton, Whitby, Scarborough, Bridlington, and all Places within their respective Deliveries, and also all the Bye-Letters of that Post from different Parts of the Kingdom, for the Towns abovementioned, and Places in their Neighbourhood.

The Person who committed this Robbery is described to be about five Feet three Inches high, broad-set; had on a light-coloured Surtout Coat, and rode upon a strong little black Horse of the Cart Kind, with a bob Tail.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed the said Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Fifty Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or, if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Offender, be intitled to the same Reward of Fifty Pounds, and will also have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-master General,
A-th. Todd, Secretary.
